The Humble

ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal

In PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Die Dominica, 8° Martii, 1701.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, Though deeply Sensible of the Unspeakable Loss this Nation hath Sustained by the Decease of His late Majesty, of Glorious Memory, Do at the same time most heartily Congratulate Your Majesties Happy Accession to the Throne, and with all Loyalty and Duty Assure Your Majesty of Our Zealous and Firm Resolutions to Support Your Undoubted Right and Title, and the Succession of the Protestant Line, as by Law Established, against all Your Enemies whatsoever; being Sensible Our Great Loss is no otherways to be Repaired, to Our Selves, or Our Confederates, but by a most Sincere and Vigorous Adherence to Your Majesty, and Your Allies, in the Prosecution of those Measures already Entred into, to Reduce the Exorbitant Power of France: And We will ever make it Appear to Your Majesty, and the World, That Our Zeal and Affection for Your Majesties Service, and the Care We have of the Publick Safety, Engage Us to Exert Our Selves with the Utmoſt Vigour and Union, for Obtaining, under Your Majeſties Reign, ſuch a Balance of Power and Intereſt, as may Effectually Secure the Liberties of Europe.

And We further Humbly Deſire, That for the Encouragement of Your Majeſties Allies, no Time may be loſt in Communicating to Them Your Majeſties Reſolutions of Adhering Firmly to the Alliances already made: And We ſhall never be Wanting, to the utmoſt of Our Power, to Enable Your Majeſty to Maintain the ſame.

Her Majeſties moſt Gracious Anſwer to the ADDRESS.

My LORDS,

IT is with great Satisfaction that I Receive the Aſſurances You give Me in Your Addreſs.

My Endeavours ſhall always be very Sincere to Promote the True Intereſt of England, and Support Our Common Cauſe.

FINIS.
